REFLECTING THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS:

The Pharisees continue to test Jesus with a question about the greatest commandment.

This week's Gospel follows close behind the Gospel read last Sunday. It is the last of three questions put to Jesus by Jewish religious leaders who are trying to trick him into saying something that might get him arrested. This reminds us that the context for today's reading is the mounting tension between Jesus and the religious leaders in Jerusalem. The Herodians and the Pharisees asked the first question, which was about taxes. The Sadducees asked the second question, which was about the Resurrection (see Matthew 22:22-33). The third question, considered in today's Gospel, is asked by a Pharisee who asks Jesus about the greatest of the commandments. The question requires Jesus to interpret the Law of Moses. The Mosaic Law consists of the Ten Commandments and many additional rules, numbering over six hundred. Adherence to the Mosaic Law, for a devout Jew, is an expression of faithfulness to God's covenant with Israel. The ranking of the Commandments was regularly debated among the teachers of the Law. Jesus answers the Pharisees' question with a two-fold summary. Jesus says that all of the commandments can be summarized in two commandments: love God and love your neighbor. Both of these were central elements of the religious tradition Jesus learned from his Jewish community. Indeed these continue to be central aspects of contemporary Jewish religious understanding. Jesus' response to his questioners proposed an integral connection between these two aspects of the Jewish Law. Love of God finds its expression in our love for our neighbor.

REFLECTIONS ON THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS:

First Reading

- What groups of people get special mention?
- In what ways are these people different from other Israelites?
- Why does God mention Egypt?
- How serious does God sound?
- What do these laws reveal about God?
- Are these laws challenging?
- As people heard these laws, how willing do you think they were to uphold them?
- What happened to the Sadducees?
- What all might Jesus be thinking as the Pharisees approach him?
- What all would you be thinking if they were approaching you?
- Why might this particular Pharisee be the one to speak to Jesus?
- What all might Jesus' disciples be thinking?
- What is the law?
- Imagine you're a Pharisee.
 - How does Jesus seem to you?
 - How do you react to Jesus' response?
 - How do the other Pharisees react?
 - What do you want to happen now?

Gospel

- Does your country have such laws today?
- Do you know ways in which the Church tries to uphold these biblical laws?
- How do you react to God's warning about his wrath (v.23)?
- Why do you think God speaks with such vehemence?
- What's the most important thing about being a Christian?
- Can a person fulfill only one of these two commandments and still be a good Christian?
- What's the difference between believing in God and loving God?
- List some Catholic laws or rules.
 - Does each rule boil down to love for God and/or for other people?
 - Are there rules you don't understand the purpose of?
 - For what reasons do you break certain rules?
