REFLECTING THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS:

Jesus visits the house of Martha and Mary.

The story of Jesus in the home of Martha and Mary complements the story of the Good Samaritan, which immediately precedes it in Luke's Gospel. Both stories are unique to Luke. The story of the Samaritan opens with the words "a certain man." Today's reading opens with the words "a certain woman." The Samaritan is an example of how a disciple should see and act. Mary is an example of how a disciple should listen. Mary, a woman, is a marginalized person in society, like the Samaritan. Both do what is not expected of them. As a woman, Mary would be expected, like Martha, to prepare hospitality for a guest. Here again Jesus breaks with the social conventions of his time. Just as a Samaritan would not be a model for neighborliness, so a woman would not sit with the men around the feet of a teacher. Both stories exemplify how a disciple is to fulfill the dual command which begins chapter 10—love of God (Mary) and love of neighbor (the Samaritan). These are the two essentials of life in the kingdom. By using the examples of a Samaritan and a woman, however, Jesus is saying something more. Social codes and boundaries were strict in Jesus' time. Yet to love God with all one's heart and one's neighbor requires breaking those rules. The Kingdom of God is a society without distinctions and boundaries between its members. It is a society that requires times for seeing and doing and also times for listening and learning at the feet of a teacher.

First Reading

Imagine you're one of the people in this story.

- Describe your surroundings. What do you see? Smell? Hear? How hot is it?
- What are you doing?
- Describe those who are with you.
- What are you thinking about?
- Whom do you meet?
- What do you expect from others?
- How do people treat you?
- What do you do as preparations are made for the meal?
- Do you talk with anyone? What do you say?
- What all do you feel?
- Is there anything you want to say or do, but don't?
- How do you reflect on the news of the pregnancy?
- Where is Jesus going?
- How comfortable a journey do you imagine Jesus and his friends are having?
- Why do you think Martha invites Jesus for a meal?
- What does Mary do?
- What all do you think Jesus is saying?
- What do you think Mary is thinking and feeling?
- What all do you imagine Martha doing?
- What might the disciples think about the actions of the two sisters?
- How do you think Martha sounds when she speaks to Jesus?
- How do you think Mary reacts to her sister?
- How do you think Martha reacts to Jesus' response?
- What might Martha have done next?

Gospel

- What did your time of reflection leave you thinking about?
- Did you encounter God in the story? If so, how did God seem?
- Does this story remind you of any situations you've been in?
- What insights does this story offer you?
- How does the story challenge you?
