REFLECTING THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS:

Jesus teaches what it means to be happy.

Today's reading is the beginning of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, which is found in Matthew's Gospel. The form of the Beatitudes found here is not unique to Jesus. Beatitudes are found in the Old Testament, in the psalms, and in wisdom literature, for example. They are a way to teach about who will find favor with God. We quickly note in this reading that the people whom Jesus calls "blessed" and "happy" are not people we think of as blessed or happy . . . the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. This Gospel is one of reversals. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness. "Blessed" is sometimes translated as happy, fortunate, or favored. In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favor is upon those who are poor, those who mourn, those who are persecuted. This news might have been welcome—and surprising—to the crowds who heard Jesus that day. The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Our vocation as Christians is not to be first in this world, but rather to be first in the eyes of God. By referring to the good things that the faithful will experience, Matthew reminds us that those who act in the manner described in the Beatitudes will find their reward with God.

First Reading

- How would you describe the humble of the earth (v.3a)?
- How do you think Zephaniah expects people to seek the LORD?
- What do you imagine happening to those who don't heed Zephaniah's words?
- Why do you think God leaves a remnant?
- What will life be like for the remnant?
- How do you think people reacted to this prophecy?
- What do you think life was like for Zephaniah?
- Discuss each beatitude.
 - How do you interpret it?
 - Do you find it reassuring?
 - In what ways does it challenge you?
- How do these beatitudes speak to both the present and the future?
- Why do you think Jesus gives this teaching?

Gospel

- Does this passage warn or reassure you?
- In what ways do you seek justice today?
- Why do you think Zephaniah emphasizes the need for humility?
- Do you try to speak and act honestly?
- Which beatitude stands out to you? Why?
- To whom do these beatitudes apply today?
 - Make a list of cultural beatitudes, like "Blessed are they who have a lot of money." How is this list different from Jesus' beatitudes?
 - Which list are you really following?
