REFLECTING THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS:

Jesus promises his disciples that he will send them another advocate, the Spirit of truth.

Today's Gospel is a continuation of last week's Gospel: Jesus is speaking to his disciples at the Last Supper. In today's reading Jesus offers encouragement to his disciples, who will soon see him crucified. He reassures them that even though he will leave them, he will not abandon them. Instead he will send them the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, through whom the disciples will continue to live in union with Jesus. Jesus uses the term Advocate to describe the Holy Spirit, whom the disciples will receive. Another word used to describe the Holy Spirit is Paraclete, a legal term meaning "one who offers defense for another." Note that Jesus says that he will send "another Advocate." Jesus himself is the first advocate, interceding for his disciples with the Father. In today's reading Jesus contrasts his impending departure with the permanence of the gift of the Holy Spirit. Jesus will leave to return to the Father, but the Holy Spirit will remain with the disciples. Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, the disciples will come to know and appreciate the unity of the Son and the Father. They will also understand that they too participate in the communion between the Father and the Son: "On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you" (John 14:20). Today's reading is one example of the contrast that John's Gospel presents between the community of disciples, to whom God will reveal himself, and the unbelieving world, which will remain in darkness. The unbelieving world cannot accept the "Spirit of truth," whom the disciples will receive. Only through the Spirit will God's revelation and love be known.

REFLECTIONS ON THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS: First Reading

- What all will God do for people?
- How will people respond?
- What circumstances would make these promises especially meaningful?
- How might people have felt about these promises?
- When do you think people expected God to do these things?
- What image or picture does this passage create in your mind?
- What might the king feel toward his son?
- Do you think the feast is going to be good?
- What all might the king expect of the people he invited?
- How do you think the king feels about the first set of refusals?
- How does the king try to persuade people to come?
- Do you think anyone has a good reason for not coming?
- What could prompt some of these invitees to become violent?
- How does the king respond?
- Why does the king search for new guests?
- What might the king expect now?
- What all might the servants be thinking?
- How are these guests unusual?
- Why do you think these people show up?
- How should the guests behave?
- Why do you think the man isn't wearing the proper clothes?
- Why do you think the man doesn't answer?
- What all might the wedding garment represent?
- Why does the king throw the man out?
- Does the king's response seem harsh?
- How well are you responding to God's invitation?

Gospel

- Which part of this passage means the most to you?
- How do you expect God to act in your life?
