REFLECTING THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS:

Jesus promises his disciples that he will send them another advocate, the Spirit of truth.

Today's Gospel is a continuation of last week's Gospel: Jesus is speaking to his disciples at the Last Supper. In today's reading Jesus offers encouragement to his disciples, who will soon see him crucified. He reassures them that even though he will leave them, he will not abandon them. Instead he will send them the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, through whom the disciples will continue to live in union with Jesus. Jesus uses the term Advocate to describe the Holy Spirit, whom the disciples will receive. Another word used to describe the Holy Spirit is Paraclete, a legal term meaning "one who offers defense for another." Note that Jesus says that he will send "another Advocate." Jesus himself is the first advocate, interceding for his disciples with the Father. In today's reading Jesus contrasts his impending departure with the permanence of the gift of the Holy Spirit. Jesus will leave to return to the Father, but the Holy Spirit will remain with the disciples. Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, the disciples will come to know and appreciate the unity of the Son and the Father. They will also understand that they too participate in the communion between the Father and the Son: "On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you" (John 14:20). Today's reading is one example of the contrast that John's Gospel presents between the community of disciples, to whom God will reveal himself, and the unbelieving world, which will remain in darkness. The unbelieving world cannot accept the "Spirit of truth," whom the disciples will receive. Only through the Spirit will God's revelation and love be known.

REFLECTIONS ON THIS SUNDAY'S READINGS: First Reading

- What imagery stands out to you?
- What victory has occurred?
- Who are the winners and losers?
- Do you think this imagery frightens or reassures people?
- Who in this passage would you want to be?
- Why do you think Jesus gives this teaching?
- What kind of people do you imagine are in the crowd?
- Discuss each beatitude.
  - What does it mean?
  - How might it reassure people?
  - How might it challenge people?
- How do these beatitudes speak about both the present and the future?
- How do you think the people who hear these beatitudes for the first time react to them?

Gospel

- Why do you think this passage was chosen for today's solemnity?
- Does one beatitude stand out to you? Why?
- Make a list of cultural beatitudes. "Lucky are they who..." How is this list different from Jesus' beatitudes?
- Why do you think this passage was chosen for today's solemnity?
